London, 3.—Lard Beaconsided arrived there this morning to attend a cabinet council in the atterneon, which it is understood was call d to consider the Turkish and affinan quessions. The tellef arriving from General Robert, unexpected victory leaves the politiest complicate in uniouched. Every government speaker denies that annexation is intended, but nebedy offers a solution of the problem, how British pressing can be maintained with permanent military control over Arghanists in involving a power ful army and vast expense whoily charged abe sor the British treasury. The Anglo-Turkish difficulty has been naif attified, half compromised in the usual fishion. It is reported that Sir Austin Layard, British ambassador at Constantinopie, has been rabbed by Lord Salesbury, or presenting an ultimatum the samer mirisionary question involving no British subject, no interest. The storestyped promise to satisfy all demands has been made by Musurus Pacha Turkish ambassador tere, and Lord Salisbury makes the usual proteined to believe it. Private advise a say that Sir Austin Layard is disgusted and discouraged. There are fresh reports of the probable appointment of Sir D ummond wolf as his successor. Meantline, the Turco Greek question is again threatening to cause trauble.

Rev. Chas. H. Spurgeon writes from Mentone that the nation should listen to Mr. Gladstone as a call to make right-courses and prace their guide instead of blustering. THE WORLD'S GREATEST WAGON AND CARRIAGE WORKS.

St. Louis, 5.—The statement that Secretary Schurz has obtained a control ling merest in the Westiecke Post, of this city, attracts considerable attention, because of the supposed indication afforded that the secretary intends to remain a permanent factor in Muscuri points, and a also adicating St. Louis as the probable headquarters of the anti-Grant wing of the republican party. There is an erganized group here headed by exsensitar Henderson, opposed to Grant or only, and it is surmised that, with the Post under Schurz's absolute control, efforts will be made to combine the German republican influence with that of the group of politicians to control the Missouri delegation to the national convention. KEARNEY, OLD BOY.

Benis Is One With Parnell in the Agitation Business. in the Agitation Busineers.

New York, 4—Denis Kearney arrived in New York early yesterday morning, accompanied by his brother, and went to French's Hotel. He is a delegate from the workingman's party to the greenback convention to be held in Washington on the 8th instant. But one portion of Kearnay's object in coming east is to see Parnell and exchange views with the Irish sgintor. He said to a reporter, we are all of course averse to Grant's rejection, but we are nearly as much opposed to the election of any man nominated by the republican party. The fact is this country and every other country belongs to the men who till its sell and make it productive. Without them it would be worthless, and who, I ask, should govern a country but the men who own it? We want no generals, no lawyors, no editors for make it productive. Without them it would be worthless, and who, I ask, should govern a country but the men who own it? We want no generals, no lawyers, no editors for our president. We want an honest working man. There not yet seen Paraell, "said Kearney, "but I hope to do so conight or to-morrow morning." With regard to the sheeting of Kalloch in San Francisco Kearney declined to say much. It was a delicate subject to talk about he said. Kalloch was a sood, hoursable, shole-souled man, and the best mayor hathan Francisco ever had.

After the greenback convention in Washington Kearney will return to this city for a short time, but he has made no rrangement to deliver public addressey, nor does he anticipate doing so.

New York, 5—Kearney visited Parnell last night as of subsequently told a reporter. "I'm with him, heart sole soul, and hedy and blood; I believe he is an honest young man and an earnest one, and I want to see the like of him here and in Ireland get out and declare themselves against every devilish kind of tyranny and every black-hearted presence of doing right. These follows that come into the world with silver spoons in their mouths and loll about on pillows all the days of their lives without knowing what it is to strain a musele, and then take to crunching with their hear men of body and heart that make the lands, these fellows need to be bolstered out, and people that can and will do the right thing should go to the frent Ryery man who has a head big enough to bope to make his way in the world, and who bas arms atout enough to back it up, oughtn't to be laid out under the sole of a puppyish, doukarish master. He ought to have a chance of showing what it in him, and have something to show for his lifetime. What can a man do in Ireland, no matter how hard he strives? No home to win for himself, no land to call his own; his very grave thrown into the property of the sluggish, dandyled brute that breeds and thrives on his misfortunes. Bah! I'm with Parnell, and he is no man that won't give him Go air. Cindistolle as a call to make right-sourmers and peace their guide instead of blustering. He declares that England is wantonly trampling Alghanistan under foot, and warms the Eoglish that under such tutors as the Times, they are be-coming a nation of demons. The whole letter is an impassioned appeal to the Christian sentiment of the country. New York, 5.-Mrs. Peckham spoke
